

The topology and geometry of polygon spaces

Jean-Claude HAUSMANN
University of Geneva, Switzerland

Polygon spaces in R^d occur in connection with statistical shape theory and robotic. For $d = 3$, they became also a chapter of Hamiltonian geometry, as a good source of examples, closely related to toric manifolds. This talk will be a survey of these various aspects of polygon spaces.